

Etha Russell
Nancy Anderson Lindsay

- 1. Byron David Anderson
- 2. Walter A Lindsay

FEBRUARY 19-20, 1991 B 3

Nan Anderson
Lindsay

After a long and varied struggle with Alzheimer's Disease, Nan Anderson Lindsay, age 88, passed away in a local care center in Salt Lake City, Utah on Monday, February 18, 1991.

Born June 2, 1902 in Carnegie, Colorado to Della E. McEntire and Harry Hale Russell. Married Byron David Anderson (who was prominent in local legal and political circles) on January 6, 1921 in the Salt Lake LDS temple. He preceded her in death on May 26, 1993. Married Walter A. Lindsay, DDS, on May 26, 1951. She and moved to Logansport, Oregon. He died July 14, 1964. She graduated from the LDS High School in Salt Lake City in 1920, after which she enrolled in a probationary nurse's training course. She later acquired her licensed practical nurse rating while living in Logansport, where she worked for several years at the Grande House Hospital. She also did a great deal of volunteer nursing, which included her training in Salt Lake City to give skilled care devoted care to her mother for three years before her death in 1956.

Many members of the South 18th Ward Relief Society remembered her for her healing and compassionate care of the sick among them. Before moving to Logansport, she worked for a number of years in the temple index Bureau of the General LDS Department of the LDS Church. The bureau was established by her father, evolving eventually into the present-day genealogical system. She also worked in the LDS Church Membership Department for several years before she retired at 62. She held ward and stake presidency in the TWILK in the Yorkston Ward in Salt Lake City, and as Union Stake Relief Society president in Logansport for five and one-half years. She also served two separate times as president of the West Relief Society of the South 18th Ward in Salt Lake City.

Survived by two sons and two daughters (and spouses), Karen and Henry Camarion Russell, Scott and Mary Russell, Byron and Jean Anderson, Allison, Peter, Shelly, and Richard G. Hale. Also, Grande, Oregon, and Stephen Hale and Shilee Anderson, Salt Lake City; nine grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren. Preceded in death by parents, three sisters and three brothers.

Funeral services on Thursday, February 21, at 11 a.m., Larkin Mortuary, 280 East South Temple, where friends may call one hour prior to services. Burial will be in the Salt Lake City Cemetery at 2/21/91.